

A photograph of a forest with tall, thin trees. A large, yellow, stylized airplane sculpture is suspended in the air, appearing to fly. To the right of the airplane, a series of light blue circular discs are attached to the tree trunks, each containing a black letter. The letters, read from top to bottom, are: 'o', 'm', 'm', 'e', 'r', 'g', 'e', 'r', 's', 'i'.
